

Britain revokes mandatory COVID shots for health workers

Reuters March 1, 2022 5:49 PM GMT+1 Last Updated an hour ago

Pdf by:
<https://www.pro-memoria.info>

LONDON, March 1 (Reuters) - Britain on Tuesday confirmed that a requirement for health workers to have a COVID-19 vaccination would no longer be introduced in April and care home workers would no longer be required to have the shots from March 15.

Health minister Sajid Javid in January said that the government intended to revoke the regulations, subject to consultation. On Tuesday the health ministry said that following the consultation, the requirement would be dropped. read more

Register now for FREE unlimited access to Reuters.com

Reporting by Alistair Smout; editing by William James

Our Standards: The Thomson Reuters Trust Principles.

Pdf by:
<https://www.pro-memoria.info>