Excerpt from a home office reasons for refusal letter for a convert to Christianity. I've seen a lot over the years, but even I was genuinely shocked to read this unbelievably offensive diatribe being used to justify a refusal of asylum.

Morning all - I took the liberty of going to bed so sorry for the lack of replies! It is, of course, genuine and it's a refusal of asylum for an Iranian Christian concert who claimed asylum in 2016. Client is appealing the decision and I will complain

Surely this needs examining by someone in church authority. If this letter is genuinely from the HO, it needs discussing and the practice stopped.

I'm struggling to believe this is authentic. Could you email me a copy of this letter to Stephen.evans@secularism.org.uk. Thanks.
